BRIDE AND GROOM AT CHINESE FAIR

There are going to be big doings at the Chinese Fair for the benefit of St. Peter's Episcopal Chinese congregation early in September. One of the attractions is to be a couple in the real dress of a Chinese bride and groom, a sight seldom seen or never seen in Honolulu. All the people here ever see is a closed hack, with two lanterns at the sides. The bride, who will be a beautiful American young woman, will be seen in all her bridal finery, and for the groom a suit will be brought especially from China. His dress is of the most gorgeous possible description, and has never been seen here. The bride and groom will sell tea, each cup of which is supposed to bring a blessing to the drinker.
